

LAFF UK AND ONLINE VOLUNTEERING NEEDS

Latin American Foundation for the Future needs your help. If you have any of the following skill sets and time to share to help LAFF support even more marginalised children in Peru, please get in touch with us on info@laffcharity.org.uk sending us your completed application form and CV. You can download the application form from the 'Volunteer' section of LAFF's website.

LAFF Researchers

We are in need of Spanish-speaking and English-speaking volunteers to perform a variety of research tasks for us, on street children issues and other topics.

LAFF Translators

Are you a fluent Spanish speaker? We are looking for a Spanish-speaking translator who can commit to translating our website into Spanish, and any website updates in future. We are also looking for translators for one-off document translation to/from Spanish to keep supporters and partners in the loop at all times.

LAFF Fundraisers

Are you interested in gaining fundraising experience? We are looking for volunteers who are able to:

- research potential grant-giving bodies;
- put on fundraising events in schools, universities and communities;
- write proposals and funding applications;
- give talks to Rotary Clubs and other UK-based funding bodies;

LAFF School Ambassadors

Are you a student or teacher at a UK school? Could you be a LAFF School Ambassador – promoting our School Pack to raise awareness and funds for street children in Latin America? We are looking for School Ambassadors for schools UK-wide.

LAFF University Ambassadors

Are you at university and interested in International Development? We are looking for University Ambassadors to share our International Volunteer Programme with students, fundraise for our projects, and develop a university pack to raise awareness of street children issues to university students across the UK.

LAFF Marketing experts

LAFF would love marketing support to help us to increase our regular donations. If you can help with a marketing strategy to do so, we'd love to hear from you.